We're committed to your safety

Line markers, such as the one above, indicate a buried natural gas pipeline's general location.

We work with industry groups to continually enhance natural gas pipeline safety. We also work with emergency responders, and state and local agencies, to prevent and prepare for emergencies through training and periodic drills.

Since natural gas pipelines are underground, line markers are sometimes used to indicate their approximate location. Markers only indicate a pipeline's general location and should not be relied upon to indicate the exact position.

Because many lines are not marked, it is critical that you contact Dig Safely New York at 811 prior to any excavation.

As an added safety measure against excavation damage, you can request that we install an Excess Flow Valve. For more information on installation requirements and costs, visit nyseg.com.
